

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CONTACT

Lexi McCoy
(614) 485-8958
lexi@pommecommunications.com

Cincinnati Cancer Foundation to Host “An Evening with Kayla Robison” Dinner Benefiting Cincinnati Cancer Advisors

Award-Winning Cincinnati Chef to Present Exclusive Prohibition-themed Event at Arnold's Bar & Grill on February 23rd, 2023

CINCINNATI – 2023 – The Cincinnati Cancer Foundation (CCF) will host a unique fundraising event as part of their “An Evening With” series, on February 23rd, 2023 at Arnold’s Bar & Grill featuring executive chef and culinary ambassador, Kayla Robison. The event will be a prohibition themed-dinner party to benefit the mission of Cincinnati Cancer Advisors, a free, one-of-a-kind, second-opinion oncology clinic providing platinum-level consultative and financial navigation services to more than 300 Greater Cincinnati cancer patients each year.

Chef Robison is perhaps best known nationally as a recent winner of “Chopped” and “Guy’s Grocery Games” on the Food Network, and she is responsible for menu development and dining room execution at Arnold’s Bar & Grill - one of the oldest and longest-running restaurants in Cincinnati.

CCF began collaborating with Kayla last year on a culinary initiative when she became the charity’s first culinary ambassador. The partnership between Chef Robison and CCF has focused on bringing fun and wholesome food choices to improve the lives of cancer patients.

“I am thrilled to expand on this partnership with CCA and step back in time for this prohibition dinner. I love being able to help support such a worthy cause in our local community and bring a whole new vibe to Arnolds for the evening. We are going to have a lot of fun with this, and I can’t wait to share the inspiration for the courses,” said Chef Robison. “Cincinnati Cancer Advisors are making a huge impact on the lives of those affected by cancer and I am happy to be able to partner with them and collaborate in so many creative ways.”

On February 23rd at 6:00 pm, Arnold's Bar & Grill transforms into a 1920's era speakeasy. The staff will be outfitted in 1920's era attire (think zoot suits and flapper dresses), and there will be live jazz, prohibition-themed cocktails and candlelights. Guests will be encouraged to dress the part with plenty of Great Gatsby vibes. Chef Kayla Robison will be developing a special four-course menu just for the event, in addition to hosting and giving a rundown of all of her menu items and inspiration as the courses are delivered.

Individual tickets to the event are available at $150 per person and attendance will be limited to 70 persons total. For more information on sponsorship and tickets, please contact Steve Abbott at steve.abbott@cincinnati-canceradvisors.org or (859) 653-4686, or visit Cincinnati Cancer Advisors’ website at www.cincinnati-canceradvisors.org/events.

###

About Cincinnati Cancer Foundation, Inc.

Cincinnati Cancer Foundation, Inc. is an Ohio-based, 501(c)(3) non-profit organization that aims to reduce the suffering and mortality that often accompanies a cancer diagnosis through its support of organizations such as Cincinnati Cancer Advisors (“CCA”) and the University of Cincinnati Cancer Center, among other organizations.

CCA is a patient-focused, oncology practice providing platinum-level consultative services free-of-charge to Greater Cincinnati Cancer patients. CCA believes that great care begins with a great plan and the organization hopes to take the feelings of chaos out of a cancer diagnosis through its team-oriented, mission-driven approach to making second opinions more accessible.

To make an appointment with CCA’s world-class oncology team, receive more information about Cincinnati Cancer Advisors, or to donate to the Cincinnati Cancer Foundation, please visit <https://www.cincinnati-cancer-advisors.org/>. Episodes of CCA’s innovative, patient-focused, “Medical Minute” podcast series can be found at www.ccamedicalminute.org. Information on CCA’s annual “Bearcats & Musketeers vs. Cancer” golf outing can be located at www.bearcatsvsmusketeers.org and information on CCA’s annual “Tri-State ASCO Direct Best of Oncology Highlights Conference” can be found at www.ccabestofoncology.org.

About Chef Kayla Robison

Chef Kayla Robison is an award-winning, nationally recognized chef with over 15 years of experience in the restaurant industry and is a frequent guest on both local and national television. She is a recent winner of Food Network’s “Chopped” and “Guy’s Grocery Games” and has also made appearances on The Today Show, Man vs. Food, and Cheap Eats. Chef Kayla embraces a creative approach in creating a modern twist to the classics we all know and love, which has recently landed her on the “Top 10 Best Chefs” list in Cincinnati.