

Hello, Friends!

Cincinnati Cancer Advisors is proud to announce a first-annual concert – being held at beautiful Taft Theatre in downtown Cincinnati on Friday, August 12, 2022. The event will benefit the mission of Cincinnati Cancer Advisors and will feature the nine-piece Philip Myers Band along with Kevin Chalfant, the first vocalist called upon by 1980's supergroup Journey after lead singer Steve Perry took his hiatus from the chart-topping band.

This year's event, aptly named "The Cancer Journey Experience," will be a 90-minute, high-energy rock concert where fans will revel in hearing a collection of some of Journey's greatest hits performed just as they remember them. The performance will also feature other iconic songs from the 1970's and 1980's performed by the Philip Myers Band which, on any given night, might feature songs by Toto, Boston, Elton John, Led Zeppelin or Van Halen, among others. See <https://philipmyersmusic.com/shows/> for more information on the band.

Tickets for the performance begin at $50 for standard seating. A limited number of VIP tickets are available at $250 per ticket that will include premium seating and a pre-show cocktail hour where attendees will have the opportunity to meet players participating in the Western & Southern Open as well as members of the Philip Myers Band. See below for tickets. <https://www.ticketmaster.com/event/16005CDBDDFC59F6>.
